

FOOD FOR NEIGHBORS

Release Form

I give Food For Neighbors permission to use my image, voice, comments, and other identifying information.

I understand that Food For Neighbors, its volunteers, and/or its school and business/organization partners take photographs, videos, audio, and comments for publicity and marketing purposes. I understand that these may be taken at any location where Food For Neighbors activity is being conducted and/or support is being given or received. I give Food For Neighbors permission to use my image, voice, and comments, as applicable, as well as to include additional information, such as my name, that identifies me. I will not receive any compensation for this use, and I also will not have the right to any of the materials.

I understand that Food For Neighbors may use my image, voice, comments, and other identifying information in a variety of ways for publicity and marketing.

I understand that there are multiple types of publicity and marketing materials. These include, among others, promotional videos, press releases, newsletters, brochures, flyers, banners, testimonials, educational materials, and derivative works. I also understand that there are multiple platforms for distributing and/or hosting marketing materials. These include, among others, websites, print newspapers, online newspapers, blogs, calendars, email, and social media. I understand that this means my image, voice, comments, and/or additional identifying information may be included in any of these and similar materials and distributed in any of these and similar methods.

I will not hold Food For Neighbors liable for the use of my image, voice, comments, and other identifying information.

I release Food For Neighbors, its volunteers, and/or its school and business/organization partners from any and all liability associated with my participation in Food For Neighbors activities as well as with the use of my image, voice, comments, and other identifying information.
